Col. Reid said it was with fellings both of pleasure and regret he offered the resolutions. He off red them without the obasect or knowledge of ex-Maybe Smith, and while he regretted that so valuable a cit zin had described to leave he pace of his birth, and sever, as it were, the cas that bound him to his kiedred and heads, yet is gave him pleasure to know that he was goir g to a field where his talenes, energy and industry would be crowned with the success they deserved. COMMON COUNCIL'

There were three members absent from their some at the meeting of the Common Council, last night. After some business, transacted without debate, Mr E islberg called attention to the condition of the sidewalk on the east side of Union street, south of Queen. It was dangerous and might cause it juctes which would involve the city in a sait for damages. He thought the matter ought to receive the immediate attenmon of the Committee on Streets, as it was on the much travelled road to the fish wherf.

Mr. Limbers wanted to know why Mr. Elebers wanted that per icular preement imespessed at the last meeting of Council a bill uro. which he. Mr. L., submitted from the Committee on Streets to insure the keeping of a! idewa ke in order.

Mr. Echberg would be willing to vote for similar preceedings in regard to any other pavement which was in a condition as likely to cruss injuries that would make the city liable for demigre. He thought the work ought to be done immediately, and the owners forced

A resolution, by Mr. Panke, for a new fire play at the intersection of Columbus and Gibbin streets, which was supported by himself and Mr. Sweeny, constituted some debate. Mr. Sweeny, in response to a question, said and the speciant took a vardiet for outs. that no new mains would be required as the

Mr. Echberg said these gentlemen were very much in a hurry about this fire plug; we there going to be a fire to-night; were these gentlemen going to set that end of the tiwn on fire? THE WASHINGTON GOOD TEMPLARS' VISIT TO GOLDEN LIGHT LODGE -A large and etchusissic meeting of Good Templars took place last right, at Old Feilows' Hall. (Columbus street), the regular lodge room of Golden Light Lodge, of this city. There were about two handred and fifty visitors present, from Weshington, Maryland and the adjuining ocunties in Virginia. Among the visitors were several Grand Lidge officers. Golden Light Lidge received and initiated twelve candidates, iccluding nine gentlemen and three ladice, after which all routine business was laid over unti nixt meeting, and the ledge opened for the good of the order. Rev. Dr. Poulson, a member of the R. W. G. L. of the world, delivered the welcoming address, which was replied to by Messrs. Whiteley and Moreling, G. W. O. Templars of Md., after which a beautiful quartotte was rendered by the Frear family and Miss Kalstron, of Washington. Hon. W. W. Berry, State Sepator, and G. W. C. T. of Va., then delivered a fine address, followed by Mr. D. P. Hollowing, P. G., W. C. T. of D. C. Mrs. Battie Beaseley, earg, "When the flowing tide comes in." which was highly appreciated. The Golden Light oboir, directed by II. C. Field, furnished excellent music, between the Eddresses. The Lodge and visitors at 10 o'clock adjourned to Armory Hall, where a barquet was prepared for all present, about four hundred. Three bandsome tables muoning the entire length of Armory Hall, with every seat compied, and a dezen or more charming young ladies fitting around them, esreful that every one should be waited on, made a resco well worth witnessing. After the cravings of the inner man had been satisfied, a stirring address was made by J. F. Divine, and Mies Perry, cf Washington, by special request, gave several fige recuations. The visitors were then escorted to the train, and resurred to Washington, highly pleased with their reception. Moon praise is due the various committees of arrangements and reception of Golden Light Lodge for the excellent macher in which every thing was planned and carried out, the ledies as usual taking upon themselves a full share of all the work.
